Salient Arabia for Military Support

In support of our Foreign Military Sales (FMS) portfolio, GovCIO established Salient Arabia for Military Support, a wholly-owned subsidiary based in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, to support FMS within the Kingdom. This investment has granted us a Commercial Registration to operate within the Kingdom, enabling us to offer a full suite of host nation services, including visa support, iqamas, housing, and vehicles, at a reduced price.

The in-Kingdom contracting landscape is influenced by shifts in Saudi Arabia's economic, political, and technological environments as outlined in Saudi Vision 2030 and its evolving Saudization requirements. SAMS was created to navigate these complexities effectively and efficiently. Our commitment to supporting operations within the Kingdom and the U.S. Government's FMS programs is evidenced by our investment in SAMS, our in-Kingdom facilities, and our consistent success in meeting or exceeding Saudization requirements. Meeting these requirements positions GovCIO/SAMS strategically in Saudi Arabia's rapidly evolving market and demonstrates our dedication to contributing to the nation's socio-economic development.

Our Approach

GovCIO assesses customer challenges and creates tailored, disruptive solutions, delivering them through the most cost-effective and mission-focused methods. Proven Success

For the past three years, GovCIO Salient Arabia for Military Support (SAMS) has provided all in-country support to our over 150 employees without requiring an in-country sponsor. This has significantly reduced operating costs for both, our company and the US Government, eliminating the fee-on-fee costs associated with contracting host nation support. As a result, we deliver superior services at a more cost-effective rate. Our expert team, with their extensive knowledge of Saudi HR, legal, banking, and support services requirements, ensures that GovCIO SAMS and our customers remain 100% compliant with Saudi law for all supported contracts. This compliance provides our customers the security and confidence they need in our services.
